

68. Family PIOPHILIDAE

By Brian R. Pitkin

This is a small family of 67 species in 23 genera, mainly Holarctic in distribution. Most are scavengers in animal products and fungi. A few species, probably of northern origin, are synanthropic, including the “cheese fly,” “cheese skipper,” or “bacon fly”, Piophila casei. Only 8 species in 2 genera are recorded from the Australasian/Oceanian Regions.
